COURSE DESCRIPTION: Spanish I is a class in which students will learn the basics of the Spanish language. Learning a new language is a very hands-on adventure that requires a lot of work each day. We will build upon our knowledge each and every day with oral and written vocabulary practice, quizzes, and exams. This class is an introduction to the language, customs, and cultures of various Spanish-speaking countries. Spanish I students will learn basic grammar, vocabulary and sentence structures in order to obtain proficiency in the Spanish language. This class will include listening, speaking, reading, and writing components. Our main focus will be communicating in Spanish. Everything done in this class will have a learning objective behind it. I will let students know what these objectives are as we begin each class period. All students can be successful. I will do everything I can to help each of you build a solid foundation in the Spanish language, but I cannot do it alone. Students must do their part as well. The rest of this syllabus outlines what is expected of students in Spanish I.

Interactive student notebook: This year in Spanish 1 we are going to be working with Interactive Student Notebooks (ISN)! I'm very excited about these and hope that you will be too. ISNs will require complete cooperation from all students. We will be cutting, gluing, folding, etc to make a notebook that will last for years to come with all the algebra knowledge you have gained! ISNs will be unique to each student - students will choose their own paper color, marker colors, etc. The notebook will be split into left and right pages. Right pages will be used for note-taking, foldables, graphic organizers, etc. Left sides will be for students to show what they have learned with practice problems, word problems, critical thinking skills, and much more. ISNs will contain a table of contents, making it very easy for students to reference them for upcoming quizzes and tests

ISNs will be graded frequently throughout the semester in a variety of ways. It is important to keep up with your notebook even if absent.

Homework: Students will typically be given a daily assignment that will be due the following day. Students will be informed of due dates on all assignments. Although ISNs will be colorful and filled with markers, crayons, pens, etc, HOMEWORK MUST BE COMPLETED IN PENCIL OR BLUE/BLACK INK ONLY!!!

All assignments must contain student name and assignment with page number and problems in the top right corner of the page. If any of these elements are missing or if the assignment is completed in something other than pencil or blue/black ink, the assignment will receive a grade of 0.

LATE WORK: Late work will not be accepted in this class. Homework must be in the classroom and ready to turn in when the tardy bell rings. Homework that is not turned in when due will receive a grade of 0. Students should use their time wisely and have homework ready by the due date. Each student will be given a FREE HOMEWORK PASS at the beginning of each nine week period. This pass can be used to replace a homework assignment that a student does not have ready to turn in. It must be turned in when the assignment is due. Students may only use one pass per nine weeks - even if you have four, you may only use one! Passes may not be used on warm-up problems, quizzes, or tests.

QUIZZES & TESTS: All tests and quizzes are to be done in PENCIL OR BLUE/BLACK INK or they will not be graded. Quizzes will not always be announced. All tests will be announced in advance. A practice test will be given one to two days in advance of the test to help students review material. Students are expected to be prepared for tests. Practice tests will be reviewed in class, but if additional help is needed I will be available before school, at lunch, and after school.

PARTICIPATION: Students will be expected to participate daily in class. This includes but is not limited to asking/answering questions about homework and lessons, participating in Spanish language conversations, and cooperating with classmates during in-class projects. Each student will receive up to 5 participation points daily. Points will be deducted from students that are tardy, not prepared for class, cause a disturbance during class, etc.

ABSENCES: It is the responsibility of the student to obtain warm-up problems, lecture notes, and assignments from any absence. ISNs must be completed even if absent, I will have a copy of the material or you may obtain it from a classmate. If help is needed for the assignment, students must come in before school. Absent students will have as many days as their absence in order to make up the warm-up problems & homework assignments missed. If a student is going to be absent due to a school activity, the student must meet with me at least one day in advance of the absence in order to obtain notes and/or the assignment that will be missed. Students will not be able to receive credit for the missed assignment unless they have met with me in advance. If the student needs help with the assignment that they have missed, they must come in before school on the day they return to school. If the student does not come in before school, it will be assumed that they understood the assignment and it will be due in class. Students that are absent the day before a test will still be expected to take the test on the scheduled day. Students that are absent the day of a test will be expected to take the exam on the day that they return to school.

CELL PHONES: As stated in the student handbook, "The use of cell phones and/or electronic devices during school hours is prohibited, unless directly given permission by a teacher. A student may possess a cell phone at school, but if it is used, seen or makes noise it will be confiscated by a faculty member." I have a cell phone bucket at the front of the classroom. If you put your phone in the bucket at the beginning of class and it rings, the phone will not be confiscated. However, if you choose to keep your phone and it rings or you are seen using it, I will confiscate it and turn it in at the office.
